

PERTH & SMITHS FALLS DISTRICT HOSPITAL
INTERNAL POSTING
OPSEU 2026-276

DEPARTMENT: PHYSIOTHERAPY

POSITION: PERMANENT FULL-TIME SENIOR/ADVANCED CARE PHYSIOTHERAPIST

POSTING DATE: MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2026

SUMMARY OF DUTIES:

- The Senior/Advanced Care Physiotherapist operates within an extended practice scope to deliver preventative, diagnostic, and therapeutic musculoskeletal care at Perth and Smiths Falls District Hospital. This role acts as a clinical champion, leading the interprofessional coordination of hip and knee arthritis care to optimize provincial Wait 1 access targets alongside regional central intake and orthopedic surgeons. Through a structured surgeon-mentorship program, the incumbent develops advanced competencies to order and interpret diagnostic imaging, analyze laboratory investigations, and identify surgical candidates. Managing care across the entire orthopedic continuum—from secondary intake and triage to post-operative follow-ups—the role also oversees the Mobility Team program, assists and directs departmental operations including staff scheduling, tracks patient data, and submits mandatory reports required by the hospital and Ontario Health.

QUALIFICATIONS: MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS/MUST HAVE:

- University degree in Physiotherapy
- Member in good standing of the Canadian Physiotherapists of Ontario
- CPR
- Advanced knowledge in the management of surgical and non-surgical patients with a variety of arthritic, musculoskeletal and orthopedic conditions primarily of the lower back and lower extremities
- Minimum of five (5) years of clinical experience in acute care, rehabilitation, or outpatient setting with a strong emphasis on operative primary arthroplasty pathways
- Leadership experience supervising or mentoring physiotherapy assistants, junior staff or students

ASSET:

- Master's degree in Physiotherapy

SALARY: $44.23 - $47.17 - $49.98 - $52.72 - $55.54- $60.90
